PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS . . .

August 23 - Nathan Cook, President of the United Way's new 211 Program was today's guest. 211 is a nationwide service where people can get health and human services information. Currently, 211 is active in Forsyth and Guilford counties. It will operate 24/7 and have bilingual operators. During the day, the United Way Greensboro location will field 211 calls; in the evening, calls will be handled by WFUBMC. Information is power, and 211 brings information to the public. Following the program, Randy Britton was selected from the audience, answered a couple questions about today's program, making him the winner of today's gift pack.

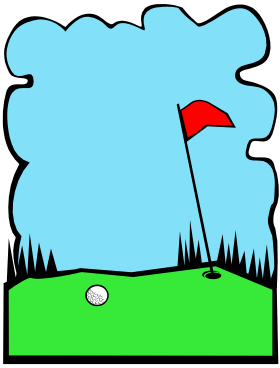

August 30 - Linda Brinson, Interim Editor of the Winston-Salem Journal Editorial Page was today's speaker. Free speech is an important American freedom, but the Journal is not a government agency, nor is it paid for by your tax dollars. It is not a booster club. Readers sometimes get irate when the papers fails to support their team, their club, etc. The Journal, as with most newspapers, are committed to tell the facts -- the truth. The news/editorial departments are sometimes viewed as in their own little world. Occasionally, reader surveys are conducted. It's only right that they try their best to give readers what they want, but the newspaper isn't perfect! Newspapers are printed by mortals, under pressures of deadlines, and mistakes are sometimes made. Most importantly, the Journal is a safeguard of our freedom. It is vitally important that the truth be told!

We want Reynolda Rotary to present non-Rotarian candidates for the team from District 7690 to Nigeria (May 2003). And it would be icing on the cake to have a member of Reynolda Rotary as the team leader. (The age restriction of 25-40 does not apply to the team leader.) Tom will be serving on the District GSE Selection Committee. The deadline for applications is September 30, 2002.

BOARD MEETING, Friday, September 6 at 11:55 a.m. in the Salem Room!

WHITEWATER WAS GREAT! TANNER SLAYDEN, the second participant we sponsored to the World Affairs Conference brought us his thoughts on the week-long event. Held earlier this summer, Tanner said his only complaint was that the conference was too short! There was a great open atmosphere where one made life-long friendships. Tanner said we should definitely continue sponsoring youth to attend this conference. It is very worthwhile!

WALK YOUR DOG; SAVE A LIFE! BARBARA CASSIDY and her dog Annabelle Lee, and LYNN EBERT and her dog Jamie, took part in the American Cancer Society's "Dogs Walk for Cancer" Saturday, August 24 at Bethabara Park. Barbara took the 4th place prize for the most money raised. Jamie won in the category of the oldest dog participating in the walk. Monies raised are divided between the American Cancer Society and the N. C. State University Veterinary School.

WARTHOGS 9 PELICANS 1. That was the score of last week's Reynolda Rotary Night at the Ballpark. Will Lawson, son of Tom Lawson, along with President Warren, threw out the first pitch.

We also had the treat of having District Governor Henry Brown and his wife, Missy, at the game.

PETE FISCH and the Warthogs have donated a portion of that game's proceeds to Rotary International's Polio Eradication Project. During our August 30 meeting, Pete presented $100 to Greg Chase, Chairman of our Polio Eradication Committee.

G'DAY, MATE! If you are interested in attending Rotary International's Annual Convention in Brisbane, Australia next year, see the registration and hotel information in the September issue of The Rotarian. The convention is scheduled for June 1-4, 2003.

YOU CAN BE THE BEST DRESSED AROUND! Don't forget our contest/drawing during next week's meeting. Those folks with 100% attendance at our club during August will be in the running for a "George Bush Tie" donated by Mike Swain of Cahill & Swain. You must be present to win!
