PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS . . .

November 30 – John Toner, Ambassadorial Scholar to Bolivia was today's guest. While a student at Wake Forest, he was able to study both in Havana, Cuba and Seville, Spain. Wanting to study more internationally as well as serve others, matches perfectly with Rotary's ideals. He begins his studies in Bolivia in January 2008 and will be there almost a year. Ambassadorial scholars receive up to $26,000 for one year's study. Bolivia is a country in great turmoil. It has 9 million people and their main exports are oil and soy beans. The current Bolivian president, President Morales, is anti-American and for a centralized government. John will return to Reynolda Rotary and again talk to us when his scholarship has ended.
